The vice-chairman of Efling on the situation of foreign jobseekers

Agnieszka Ewa Piotrowska, the vice-chairman of Efling, spoke on visir.is about the situation of foreign workers after Kári Stefánsson's statements on Kastljós about the foreign jobseekers being the main culprit of the recent increase of Covid-19 infections in Iceland. She pointed out the financial situation of foreign jobseekers and the reasons for which they may need to travel abroad. Read the article

The online space for the Council of Delegates

We have created a new, simple online space for the Council of Delegates on the Efling website. The page contains the most necessary information for the members of the Council. Meeting schedule, meeting minutes and the list of the Council's members and more will be accessible on the page. The page is still in development and will be regularly updated. More here

How to set up the Efling virtual background on Zoom?

Easy instructions on how to set up the Efling virtual background on Zoom can be found on the landing page for the Council of Delegates. The background will show your name and workplace.
