

Confirmation from recipients must include:

1. Name of the place/school/museum visited.
2. Date and time of visit (in accordance with the trip schedule).

In many cases these are emails where the institution is invited on this or that day, while others get a written confirmation from the recipient, signed and stamped.

If a museum is to be visited, confirmation from the museum must be provided, stating that the visit is guided/education is included.